

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1894.

NO. 93

Be It Ever so Humble, There's no Place Like Home.

To the Editor Interior Journal.

At home again, glorious old Crab Orchard—but another name for Paradise. This is certainly the most beautiful place upon earth. Mountains looming up in the distance, upon whose lofty summits the gloomy pines struggle for a scant foot hold, and stand upon those watch-towers of creation, silent sentinels, on the out-look for any foe that may seek to invade our peaceful domain.

Circuit court is still in session at Pineville and goes on two weeks longer from the time I left, but as there are frequently 63 lawyers in attendance I thought I could come back and go to work on the farm, and perhaps they would not miss me, so as to clog the wheels of justice till I go back again in July.

One of the beautiful dark-eyed widows from far up in the mountains, did not excuse me readily. In a soft, gentle, but determined way she demanded the engagement ring, but I told her there were none in Pineville fine enough for such an occasion. She, with her retinue, came three days' journey through the wild mountains, and stayed at the same hotel I was at, for a week. We had a nice time. I saw her safely seated on the train when she took her departure for far off Hazard, but as her father was present I could not take the proper receipt for the precious cargo. She is very wealthy and most entertaining. I described to her the ecstasy of domestic happiness. The hay stacks without, showing the barn full within, the undulating hills, the lowing herds, the singing birds, the cackling hens, crowing roosters, gobbling turkeys, and an old-fashioned wood fireplace, and the cheerful blaze throwing its genial warmth all over the room and the husband in the rocking chair in one corner, and wife in the other, husband reading the INTERIOR JOURNAL and singing:

Corn in the big crib, money in the pocket,
Baby in the cradle and pretty wife to rock it.

She said "Well Mr. Bobbitt, you could not have painted a prettier picture of domestic bliss had you labored six months, but I must differ with you in regard to one little matter—that is rocking that cradle; that is pastime I certainly don't delight in."

I told one widow who had three children that the King of Dahomey has a lake of blood, which has spouted from the necks of his decapitated subjects, whom he has beheaded for that purpose, on which he sails his pleasure boat, with my magnificent herd of short-horn milk cows, I can furnish a lake of milk on which your three little fellows could sail their pleasure yacht and paddle their own canoe.

FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT.

DANVILLE.

(Advocate.)

—Mr. J. R. Avritt, of Bradfordsville, and Miss Mary A. Burke, daughter of Capt. A. S. Burke, were married Thursday.

—The Danville Gun Club organized with the following charter members: Judge C. R. McDowell, Dr. B. M. Marsh, J. R. McRoberts, A. E. Hundley, B. G. Boyle, L. S. Logan, R. R. Price, E. S. Rowland, J. B. Roberts, B. F. Phillips, H. E. Woolfolk and others.

—Judge Saufley decides in the case of Frank Ellis against W. S. Tuttle for the marshaling of Junction City that Ellis pay the costs in the case up to the time that he offered to dismiss the contest, and that Tuttle pay all costs incurred after that. The case was stricken from the docket and Tuttle holds on.

The Q. & C. would be pleased to have all farmers, or others who are interested, drop us a card, asking for information about our land seekers' excursions. Tickets at One Fare for Round Trip from Cincinnati, Louisville or Lexington, Ky., to points in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, and points in Georgia as far east as Augusta; also to New Orleans and Mobile. Excursions January 8th, February 8th, March 8th and April 9th. Limited to 20 days for return. Write to W. P. Cooley, T. P. A., Cleveland, O.; C. A. Baird, T. P. A., Detroit, Mich.; or A. J. Lytle, N. P. A., Chicago, Ill., for information as to rates, etc., and for literature on the South, or to W. C. Rineason, Gen'l Pass'r Agent, Cincinnati, O.

SAXBY'S QUERRY TO INGERSOLL.—This beautiful song (words and music regular sheet music size) will be mailed to anyone enclosing 5c in stamps to D. G. Edwards, General Passenger Agent, C. H. & D. R. R., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Irregularity.

Is that what troubles you? Then it's easily and promptly remedied by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They regulate the system perfectly. Take one for a gentle laxative or corrective; three for a cathartic. If you suffer from constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, sick or bilious headaches, or any derangement of the liver, stomach or bowels, try these little pellets. They bring a permanent cure. Instead of shocking and weakening the system with violence, like the ordinary pills, they act in a perfectly easy and natural way. They're the smallest, the easiest to take and the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

The cleansing, antiseptic and healing qualities of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy are unequalled.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Born, on the 10th inst., to the wife of Mr. Geo. M. Patterson, a girl.

—The remains of Mrs. S. H. Estes who died near Crab Orchard, were interred in the Lancaster cemetery Friday.

—The required number of names having been secured, a lodge of the Knights of Honor will be organized in Lancaster at once.

—The remains of Mr. Hiram Hiatt were interred in the Lancaster cemetery Friday afternoon, after brief services held at the residence of Mrs. Emma Kaufman.

—Mr. Lewis Walker and Miss Eliza Lusk will commence a subscription school at the public school building Tuesday, the 23d.

—The first half of the present session of Garrard College, closed Saturday. Quite a number of new pupils have entered for the coming term at this flourishing institution.

—Two colored men named Simon Engelman and John Baughman were brought here Wednesday afternoon from Lexington and lodged in jail by Policeman John Ford of that city. They are charged with breaking into a store at Benna Vista, and taking a lot of goods which were found in Lexington by the officers there. They have since plead guilty.

—W. J. Kinnaird has opened an insurance office in Lexington. Mr. Letcher Owsley has announced himself a candidate for the nomination for county attorney, subject to the action of the democracy. Mr. Dave Pullins and family have moved to his farm near Paint Lick. The democratic county committee will meet at 10 o'clock Saturday February 3rd, and desire that all candidates meet with them.

—Mr. Sam Joseph, of Cincinnati, has been here several days mingling with his many friends. Miss Lilly Noel, of Danville, is visiting relatives here. Rev. R. Graham Frank, of the Bible College Lexington, came over Sunday and preached at New Antioch. Judge M. D. Hughes, Deputy Grand Dictator of the Knights of Honor, in Kentucky, was in the Southern part of the State this week in the interest of that rapidly growing order. Miss Hiatt, of Crab Orchard is visiting relatives here.

—Mrs. Maggie Cheek, of Danville, and Rev. Benjamin G. George, of Lewistown, Ill., were in Lancaster on the 10th on a brief visit to their kinsman, Gen. W. J. Landram, who has been confined for several weeks with a severe spell of the grip, but who has nearly recovered from the prevailing epidemic. Mr. George is the son of Wm. George, of Texas, and a cousin of Gen. Landram. He is a minister of the Presbyterian church and stands high as an able and eloquent pulpit orator. His father was born and raised near Lancaster and his first wife was Miss Givens, of Lincoln. He removed to Missouri, where he resided for many years and from there went to Lancaster, Texas, where he now resides in the 31st year of his age.

—While the country is still laboring under a terrible financial pressure and millions are out of employment, the Soldiers at Washington, at $50 a day, are firing hot shot at each other and relieving themselves of imaginary wit, evidently of the impression that the people have no right to call in question anything they do or say. There is a day of reckoning ahead. It is not far off, and if one third of those now in Congress are re-elected at the next election, it will be the eighth wonder of the world. Mark the prediction: A political cyclone will be an eye-opener to many who now imagine they are seated for life. Hannibal, in addressing his army at the battle of Cannae, said "It is not words we want, but actions," a lesson of history our law makers would do well to heed.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer of the 20th inst., in a two-column editorial of vigorous English, reads the riot act to President Cleveland for keeping republicans in office. Commencing with the appointment of Gen. Greenham as a premier of the cabinet, a savage attack is made upon him, and the appointment of Wayne McVeigh as minister to Italy and the retention in office of Mr. George Wilson, an Ohio republican, as deputy commissioner of internal revenue, are denounced as being offensive to the active, working element of the democratic party. It claims that a relative of ex-Vice-President Morton, a republican, is kept in a prominent Consular position, simply as an act of courtesy to Mr. Morton, and that all the departments in Washington are filled with republicans appointed during the administration of President Arthur. The article opposes the administration upon its position in the Hawaii trouble; also upon the silver question, as well as that of the tariff. It claims that its democracy is stronger, purer and better than that of Mr. Cleveland, and that in a free country every one has the right to his opinion and an untrammelled expression of the same. It proposes to speak out in meeting, regardless of what others may think of it or what they may do about it.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Sunday at about two o'clock Henry Gambel committed a rape on the eleven year-old daughter of A. B. Francis near Pleasant View five miles south of this place. In about three hours after the deed was committed he was found hid in a pond of water. Deputy Sheriff Ellison started to Williamsburg and was overtaken about 2½ south of town by a mob which hung him on the road side to an apple tree. Circuit Court and the grand jury are in session here now but we do not know what action will be taken in the matter. The sentiment in this county is very much against mobs and the probabilities are they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

—Twenty-four new bills were introduced in the House on Friday, making nearly 200 in all.

—Mr. Folles, the democrat, was given the seat from Allen county over Gillum, republican, by a vote of 69 to 20.

—A bill requiring a county judge to be at least 24 years old and to have been a practicing lawyer for four years, is before the House.

—If the bill passed by the Senate becomes a law, circuit clerks will get a fee of $5 in felony cases and $5 additional if an appeal is taken and a transcript made.

—The new local option law as passed by the Senate requires that 25 per cent of the voters of each precinct and not 25 per cent of the voters in the county obtained anywhere, must petition the court before an election shall be ordered.

—The Senate has passed a bill to prohibit lawyers from occupying the same office with a sheriff, but the wherefore is not very plain. The body also passed a bill to increase the commission of trustees of the jury fund from 3 to 5 cents, and another bill was presented to abolish that office and make the Master Commissioner perform the duties.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. W. T. Humphrey preached at the Baptist church here Sunday morning.

—Uncle Joe Hopper is holding a great revival at the first Presbyterian church Lexington.

—The meeting at the Methodist church closed Sunday night, after lasting nearly two months.

—Cornelius Vanderbilt, it is said, has given $1,000,000 to religious work in the past two years.

—The 4th verse of the 20th chapter of Revelations contains more words than any other verse in the New Testament.

—Rev. A. V. Sizemore will preach at Logan's Creek church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

—Elder Keene, of Covington, well and favorably known in this city, has accepted a call from the Christian church at Winchester, at a salary of $2,000.

—Rev. W. W. Green has closed a meeting at Kelat with 75 additions, and one at Flat Rock, assisted by Rev. W. S. Grinstead, with 10 or 12 conversions.—Nicholasville Journal.

—The pastor of the Dover Circuit M. E. Church, South, announces that he has received but $90 in the past three months for his support, although he preaches to four churches.

—Philadelphia now has 684 places dedicated to worship. H. H. Carroll recently showed that of this number 136 belong to the Presbyterian, 127 to the Methodist, 102 to the Episcopalians, 95 to the Baptists, 61 to the Catholics and 40 to the Lutherans. New York has only 534 churches.

The great success that Gen. Basil Duke is making of the The Southern Magazine is evidence of the high opinion entertained of his writings, as well as proof of his excellent taste in the selection and arrangement of the material of this delightful periodical. Harrison Robertson, of the Courier-Journal staff, who wrote "How the Derby Was Won," for Scribner's Magazine some time ago, (which story, by the way, the Scribners have esteemed so highly as to include it in their volume of "Stories of the South"), has a story in the February number of The Southern Magazine. Mr. Robertson calls the story "The Courtship of Cale Sublett," and in it draws skillfully and humorously certain types of the "Blue Grass Country" about Lexington.

—R. C. Pate is again trying to get a concession for bull fighting to add to his losing race course venture in Mexico.

—A tax on meatshops in the State of Sinaloa, Mexico, has increased the price of meat until this article of food is a luxury that only the rich can afford.

—Daniel L. Jones, Charles O'Dwyer and Joseph Hardin, who held up and robbed the Illinois Central train at Centralia, last September, was each sentenced to 20 years in the pen.

—Ex-Congressman Jehu Baker, of Illinois, vehemently denounces as false Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge's charges that Hon. Wm. R. Morrison was defeated by Baker by means of bribery in 1886.

HUSTONVILLE.

—James, Leslie and Janus Reid have rented their father's farm for this year and will run it in style.

—"Jakey" Hummelstein's auction drew quite a large crowd to town Saturday evening, but bidding was slow and not a great many goods were disposed of.

—John Riffe has sold his stock of groceries and hardware to a Mr. Tucker, of Perryville, but as no money has changed hands, Mr. Riffe continues to hold the goods.

—Walter Greening has moved into his new house recently completed on the Danville pike and he and his handsome wife are as cozily fixed up as you please. Mr. Greening will become a Granger of the veriest sort.

—There has not been in the recollection of the oldest citizen as much plowing as has already been done to date, nor does that oldest citizen remember when there was better opportunity than the present season has offered.

—L. B. Adams' dwelling caught fire Saturday and had not the flames been discovered in their extreme youth, his pretty house would now be in ruins. A box of hot ashes was left sitting close to the house and the fire started from it.

—James Frye has moved his stock of goods into his brand new store house and he now has one of the handsomest stores in this section. He has a room for dry goods, notions, &c., another for clothing and still another for groceries, making it as convenient as it is metropolitan like.

—Mrs. Adelia Woods has moved the post-office into the old Campbell property on Main street, a more convenient as well as a more centrally located place. She has just received a large lot of boots and shoes, which she will sell on commission for Napier Bros. Charlie Adams is assisting her in the present.

—John Drye, the negro killed at Junction City a few days ago, came through our quiet city a few nights before he was shot by Blackerty, raising Cain and playing the mischief in general. Marshal Newburn tried to arrest him, but he mounted his horse and left before he could get his clutches on him.

—While hauling a load of merchandise to Moreland on the 17th inst. Mr. Florence Yowell had his back severely blistered. Fire did not cause him the trouble, but it was the work of January's hot sun rays. Mr. Yowell, to keep from melting, had removed both coat and vest and the gap in his shirt behind gave the sun fair play and it literally scorched the exposed portions.

—Miss Lizzie Drye and James B. Cook went to Bradfordsville Saturday evening to visit relatives and friends. Mrs. America Bailey has moved to Mrs. J. West Hocker's. James B. Harper is in the South selling mules. J. G. Weatherford, familiarly known as "Buck," is in Covington looking for an opening for a drug store. His successor, Felix B. Twidwell, seems to be doing well. Miss Sallie Cook will go to Lexington to-day to visit Mrs. Dr. Lee F. Huffman. Mr. and Mrs. B. C. VanArsdale have been visiting at Junction City. Mr. Ed Staggs is drummer, book-keeper, &c., at the mill. It would be hard to find a better man for the position.

—The Virginians and Georgians observe Gen. Lee's birthday as a holiday. Friday last was an anniversary.

—If the offer of 3,000 muscular Montana steers does not meet the views of the toughs who are steering the Florida prize fight, they are hard to suit—as Col. Stod Johnston would have remarked if his attention had been called to it.—Times.

—As the fourth day of February, the regular day for the payment of quarterly pensions, falls this year on Sunday, Dr. Walton, the Pension Agent, wishes everybody to know that pension vouchers must be executed on or after the 5th of February. Vouchers executed on Sunday, the 4th, will not be legal or accepted.

REMEMBER.—That the Wisconsin Central has the unequalled endorsement of all, it being the most popular line between Chicago and Milwaukee and St. Paul, Minneapolis and the Northwest it is recognized as the Pullman Line between Chicago and Milwaukee and Ashland, Duluth and Lake Superior points. That the Wisconsin Central touches the most prominent points in Wisconsin, having more business centers than any railway to and from the Northwest. That its dining car service is unsurpassed by any other line, and that its representatives will cheerfully furnish any information that may be desired. For full details regarding Rates, Routes, Folders, Maps etc. address your nearest ticket agent or Jas. C. Pond, Gen. Pass. Agent, Milwaukee, Wis.

Two Lives Saved.
Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Theo. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at A. R. Penny's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.
